

NOTICE OF MANDATORY ATTENDANCE OF EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM IN CASES INVOLVING CHILDREN

Pursuant to Administrative Order #02-35-S mandatory attendance at an educational program (seminar) is established as a required policy in Seminole County for all parties in family law actions where they are minor children involved, effective January 1, 1995. In all domestic relations cases involving divorce, separate maintenance, paternity, change of custody or modification of visitation filed after that date, the parties shall attend and complete an approved four (4) hour seminar/program, within sixty (60) days of service of the petition upon respondent, and shall file a certificate of completion with the Clerk of the Circuit Court; otherwise, they shall bring the certificate with them to the next scheduled hearing. Except as authorized by the Administrative Order, no judge shall enter an order of final judgment, other than emergency orders, without proof of such compliance being received from the parties, and filed in the court file. All parties to whom this requirement applies, unless excused by the judge, shall be responsible for enrolling in and completing such course, and for paying the required fee as established by providing agency by the party attending.

Agencies approved the court for providing such education are:

IN CASES INVOLVING CHILDREN

Pursuant to Administrative Order VL-FM-98-004 mandatory attendance at a parenting education course is established as a policy in Volusia County for all parties in family law cases involving visitation or custody issues. It is the responsibility of the Petitioner to provide the Respondent with a copy of these instructions and the list of providers.

Each party required to attend shall successfully complete the chosen program within 90 days of receipt of these instructions or before the scheduled trial date, whichever is sooner. Each party who successfully completes the program shall file a Certificate of Completion with the Clerk of the Court, who shall file said Certificate in the appropriate case file.

Failure to attend may result in appropriate sanctions.
